Astrology and Horoscope

Gems In our universe all light is an emanation from the central Sun. The Sun is the storehouse of all energies and potencies, the source of light, warmth and motion on this planet. There are gemstones associated with each of the nine planets. There are gemstones associated with astrological signs, days of the week, and wedding anniversaries. However, the most well known association with gemstones is the birthstone.

Birthstones conduct the energy that each cycle and season brings. It is also wise to wear a stone that will support whatever is critical or a weak point in your horoscope.

The more precious stone you wear the more strongly you will be charged with cosmic forces, which radiant out into your surroundings.

Sometimes the stones draw disease pain and misfortune out of the ethic body of the person.
