Vastu Shastra

Vaastu is the science of architecture.

It dates back to preramayana and Mahabharataya periods. Eighteen professor of Vaastu are mentioned in the matasya puran.

The science of Vaastu takes into fundamental consideration the energies radiating from the different directions. Vaastu is the practical science dwelling in the Sanskrit dictionary. Many of the great temples and palaces of world bear testimony to the greatness of the architecture.

Taj Mahal, which was built by the great king of India Shahjahan, was also based on Vaastu. The principals of Vaastu as enumerated in the classical texts are universally applicable irrespective of religion or place.
